

E-Opportunities for Professional Development in Literacy

Reading Rockets Reading 101: A Guide to Teach Reading and Writing - A self-paced, no cost course for preschool/elementary teachers focusing on effective strategies and techniques to teach the Big 5 Ideas of Reading. This course is taught by national literacy leaders.

<https://www.readingrockets.org/teaching/reading101-course/modules/course-modules>

Keys to Literacy - Collection of recorded videos and webinars on various topics including argument writing, five components of reading, quick writes, etc. by Joan Sedita, national literacy professional development leader. <https://keystoliteracy.com/free-resources/videos/>

Keys to Literacy Live Webinars for April - Registration required for these no-cost live events offered by Joan Sedita.

<https://keystoliteracy.com/event/april-free-webinar-series/>

Dr. Anita Archer - Video collection for elementary and secondary teachers on explicit instruction for background knowledge, vocabulary, read alouds, decoding, multisyllabic words, etc.

<https://explicitinstruction.org/anita-l-archer-phd/>

Shanahan on Literacy - Renowned international literacy leader Tim Shanahan's collection of presentations and weekly blog on literacy improvement.

<https://shanahanonliteracy.com/publications>

<https://shanahanonliteracy.com/blog>

YSU Science of Reading Series - Recorded webinars on the foundations of the science of reading, word recognition, and language comprehension presented by Ohio Literacy Lead Michelle Elia.

<https://www.smores.com/w56cr>

Walsh Administrator Literacy Series - Recorded webinars on the foundations of the science of reading, quality of instruction, leadership challenges, and literacy assessment presented by

---

Ohio Literacy Lead Michelle Elia and Dr. David Brobeck, Program Director of Graduate Education at Walsh University.

<https://www.smores.com/sc2y3>