

Equity & Social Justice Network Meeting

This network is an opportunity to think through how our policies and procedures reflect inequities. Participants will collectively brainstorm ways to improve systems in order to meet the needs of each student, including students from different racial and ethnic backgrounds. Through the use of research and best practices, participants will learn how to collect and analyze pertinent data to make decisions that will impact educators, students, the culture and climate of districts, and the community.

Intended Audience:

District administrators, building administrators, teachers, intervention staff, related service providers, guidance counselors, paraprofessionals, community members, juvenile justice personnel, alternative schools staff, ESC staff
