

Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and Multi-Tiered System of Supports (MTSS) Foundations

Date

November 30, 2023

Hours

9:00 am - 11:30 am
(UDL)
12:30 pm - 3:00 pm
(MTSS)

How does UDL fit within MTSS? Universal Design for Learning is designing with a purpose. It's a can-do design that teachers are continuously learning from and using even in their targeted & intensive/individual interventions. It is also an interactive map that should help teachers be proactive in planning for Tier I interventions. This in-person training will help implement and/or improve UDL and MTSS in your school and district.
